THE COSTA MESA PREMIERE OF THE MUSICAL KIMBERLY AKIMBO

Seegerstrom Center for the Arts is thrilled to announce the Costa Mesa Premiere of KIMBERLY AKIMBO, winner of five 2023 Tony Awards including BEST MUSICAL and the most critically acclaimed musical of its season, is now on-sale. KIMBERLY AKIMBO will spend two weeks at Seegerstrom Center for the Arts from January 21 to February 2, 2025. Ticket prices start at $44.07. Additional ticket information is available at scfta.org.

Kimberly is about to turn 16 and recently moved with her family to a new town in suburban New Jersey. In this "howlingly funny heartbreaker of a show" (The New Yorker), Kim is forced to navigate family dysfunction, a rare genetic condition, her first crush... and possible felony charges. Ever the optimist, she is determined to find happiness against all odds and embark on a great adventure.

Three-time Tony Award nominee Carolee Carmello will star as Kimberly in this national touring production. Joining Carolee on stage will be Miguel Gil (Original Broadway Company of KIMBERLY AKIMBO), Jim Hogan (Original Broadway Company of KIMBERLY AKIMBO), Emily Koch (Wicked, Waitress), Dana Steingold (Beetlejuice, The 25th Annual Putnum County Spelling Bee), Grace Capeless (Disney's The Lion King), Skye Alyssa Friedman (Original Broadway Company of KIMBERLY AKIMBO), Darron Hayes (Original Broadway Company of KIMBERLY AKIMBO) and Pierce Wheeler (Dear Evan Hansen National Tour). KIMBERLY AKIMBO originally began as a play by David Lindsay-Abaire back in 2001. It has a special connection to Costa Mesa as it premiered at South Coast Repertory.

SLEIGH BELL TEA RAISES MONEY FOR ASSISTANCE LEAGUE OF SANTA ANA SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

By Susan Irvine

The annual Sleigh Bell Tea Fundraiser, was a festive affair that successfully raised funds for a scholarship program dedicated to helping under-served students achieve their college aspirations. From the moment the guests arrived, they were treated to a setting filled with holiday cheer, complete with champagne toasts and a beautifully set atmosphere.

The event was meticulously orchestrated by Chairwoman Donna Layne and her team of talented committee members, including gourmet chefs who prepared the tea and food from scratch. The committee, comprised of Donna Layne, Linda Chapel, Melinda Jordan, Karen Mittendorf, Di Willis, Paulette Fuller, Leila Jensen, Priscilla Cloud, Martha Molina, Patti Heimann, Kay Housley, Linda Cimbaluk, Miriam Garcia, Emma Molina, Margarita DeBoer, Monica Mendoza and Susan Irvine, ensured that every detail was perfect.

The culinary offerings included homemade scones, holiday salad, savories, and a trio of desserts, all complemented by holiday spiced teas on tables that were adorned in holiday finery. The afternoon featured live holiday music by harpist Julio Montero.

Judi Fine, President of the Assistance League of Santa Ana, expressed her deep gratitude for the continued support that enables the League to provide valuable resources to those in need that include Operation School Bell (school uniforms, backpacks, and school supplies), low-cost dental care, college scholarships, food pantries at two Santa Ana Schools, food distributions three times a year, Gift of Giving and senior outreach projects.

The silent auction, an exciting feature of the event, included items like tickets to a Ducks Hockey game, third-row tickets to Broadway shows at the Segerstrom Center for the Arts, Duffy Boat Rides, and a dinner experience at Chapter One and The Cliffs Restaurants. Underwriters for Scholarships were Karol Goldsmith, Teri Kennady, Kathleen Masenga, Nadine Hall, and Joyce Rohrbaugh.

The Assistance League of Santa Ana boasts a rich history and a distinguished legacy, tracing its origins back to 1935 when Katharine Irvine, wife of James Irvine II, founded the organization alongside 42 pioneering women. It was the third chartered chapter in the United States and has been instrumental in establishing many other chapters across Orange County.

Attending the event were two generations of the Irvine family, descendants of Katharine Irvine, demonstrating their ongoing engagement and support. Among them were Susan and James Irvine, Katharine's grandson, and Chris and Amy Connelly, with Chris being Katharine's great-grandson.

This year's Sleigh Bell Tea Fundraiser not only celebrated the holiday season but also showcased the enduring impact and commitment of the Assistance League of Santa Ana in transforming lives and strengthening the community through their Philanthropic works.

The Ultimate Guide to Game Day Hosting

6 tips to host a game day gathering like a pro

FAMILY FEATURES

From kickoff to the final whistle, game day is all about spending time with friends and family while rooting for your favorite team. When it's your turn to host, you can bring all the fun of a tailgate party to the comfort of your couch with the proper plan for hosting.

Show Your Team Spirit

Make your guests feel excited from the moment they walk through the door – or as soon as they pull in the driveway – by decking out your space in team colors and memorabilia. Use football- or team-themed banners, flags, balloons, coasters and tablecloths to set the mood.

Wear your favorite jersey and create a stadium-like atmosphere with fun props like foam fingers or pom-poms for guests to use and cheer on their team.

Prep Ahead of Time to Score Big

Avoid a rush before kickoff by making a checklist of everything you'll need. Ensure your TV and sound systems are working correctly and that you have access to the right channel or streaming platform.

Make a store run at least a day in advance to grab everything you'll need for your watch party: dishes, snacks, drinks, tablecloths, trash bags and some household essentials like Finish Ultimate Dishwasher Detergent. Finish Ultimate tackles dish cleanup in the kitchen like a pro, so hosts can enjoy all the fun parts of game day without the worry.

If possible, pack your coolers the night before – just as you would for tailgating at the stadium – and prep and cook any dishes you can ahead of time, so you can enjoy the action with minimal interruptions.

Feed the Fans

Football fans are often foodies, too. A buffet-style food setup allows guests to help themselves to their favorite snacks and dishes throughout all four quarters.

Review your game plan ahead of kickoff to make sure your game day menu offers a variety of finger foods, such as wings, sliders and nachos. Then, take your menu to the next level with unique eats like this new saucy, cheesy creation – the TRUFF Hot Honey Bacon Cheddar Dip with Pretzel Bites – to add a spicy twist.

To complete the roster of game day eats, include a veggie tray or charcuterie board and a variety of beverages, including water, soda and juice. To stay on theme, consider serving cake or brownies in the shape of a football for dessert or topping cupcakes with icing in the team's colors.

Tackle Cleanup

All those delicious snacks your guests are enjoying are sure to make a mess. For hosts tackling cleanup during the game, don't miss out on all the on-screen action–turn to the star player to make cleanup a breeze: Finish Ultimate Dishwasher Detergent.

Finish Ultimate tackles tough game day messes, even without pre-rinsing, leaving hosts more time to cheer on their team and less time in the kitchen cleaning up.

Create the Perfect Viewing Environment

Ensure everyone has an unobstructed view by arranging your seating strategically. Use a combination of couches, chairs and floor cushions to accommodate your guests. Scatter small tables throughout the area within easy reach for guests to place their drinks and snacks while the action is live.

To ensure fans never miss a moment of the action, turn the TVs in other rooms to the game as well; just ensure the sound is down in case the main screen is ahead or behind of the secondary viewing options.

Consider Downtime Entertainment to Keep the Energy High

While the main event is watching the action, you can keep the excitement going during halftime and commercial breaks with fun activities like cornhole, football trivia, bingo, mascot matching or an old-fashioned game of catch. Also have some board games, card games or video games on hand for those who might want to take a break from watching or children who aren't as engaged in the on-screen action.

Remove bacon from oven and carefully pat dry with paper towels. Brush bacon with hot honey and return to oven. Set aside any remaining hot honey for later use.

Bake bacon 10-15 minutes until brown and crisp. Set bacon aside to cool.

Chop bacon into small, bite-sized pieces. Pour bacon pan drippings into bowl and discard once cool.

In bowl, whisk softened cream cheese, beer and mustard to combine. Add grated cheddar cheese, chopped scallions, garlic powder, onion powder and black pepper. Stir until thoroughly combined.

Spread mixture evenly in 13-by-9-inch dishwasher-safe ceramic or glass baking dish.

Bake 20-25 minutes, or until hot and bubbly.

Remove from oven and rest 5 minutes. Sprinkle top of dip with chopped bacon and drizzle with remaining hot honey.

Serve dip alongside baked pretzel bites.

SADDLEBACK VALLEY CHAPTER OF NATIONAL CHARITY LEAGUES 41ST ANNUAL FASHION SHOW AND FUNDRAISER

The Saddleback Valley Chapter of National Charity League (NCL), Inc. celebrated the 41st Annual Fashion Show and Fundraising event on Sunday, November 17, 2024. The Fashion Show provides an opportunity for Saddleback Chapter members to come together and celebrate their hard work while benefitting their local philanthropies. The Saddleback Chapter volunteered over 10,000 hours in the last year in support of our local non-profits, providing much needed community support and giving our young women a chance to directly serve those in need.

This year's event was co-chaired by Traci August, Jen Caison, Sara Jack, Paige Morris, and Megan Walters. This fun event included photo booths, a live auction, gift baskets, and opportunity raffle drawing, as well as a wine pull and Gorjana jewelry pull. Family, friends, and community supporters attended the show that was held at Westin South Coast Plaza in Costa Mesa, California.

The Annual NCL Fashion Show is one of the highlights of the six-year NCL program and it provides Ticktockers, entering their fifth year of NCL, with opportunities to build and develop stage-presence, poise, and self-esteem. These young ladies, escorted by male models, exuded confidence as they strutted down the runway showcasing various fashion trends, with beautiful gowns and stylish tuxes as their final pieces, all from local vendors: Calli Girl Boutique, Friar Tux, and Macy's.

The Class of 2026 models included: Jaelynn August, Bailey Bactat, Emily Caison, Riley Covas, Caitlyn Davidson, Aria Fatoure, Ayla Gelsinger, Peyton Graham, Kenna Maguire, Brooke Mehta, Sophia Moore, Keira Morgan, Cielle Pelloquin, Jeri-Rose Stein, Macy Taylor, and Audrey Walters. They are junior class members from the following High Schools: Aliso Niguel High School, JSerra Catholic High School, Santa Margarita Catholic High School, San Juan Hills High School, Laguna Hills High School, Trabuco Hills High School, and Orange County School of Arts. The Male Models this year included: Jonah Clem, Sid Gaikwad, Michael Pavlov, and Anthony Saadeh.

Our Annual Fashion Show is always an amazing event. "This event is more than a celebration of fashion - it's a showcase of the confidence, leadership, and dedication of our young women developed through the National Charity League program. The funds raised will allow us to continue supporting local charities and empowering the next generation of compassionate leaders," says Dinelli Agarwal, President of the NCL Saddleback Valley Chapter.

Proceeds from this event support our chapter and local philanthropies: Alzheimer's Association, American Heart Association, American Red Cross, Bradley's Beautiful Bouquets, Cinderella's Closet, Florence Sylvester Senior Center, Gigi's Playhouse Orange County, Jessie Rees Foundation, Laura's House, Lighthouse Ministries, Miracles for Kids, Norman P. Murray Senior Center, Age Well Senior Center, Operation Help A Hero, Orange County Rescue Mission, Pediatric Cancer Research Foundation, Providence Mission Hospital Foundation, Rancho Santa Margarita Public Library, Rose Parade Petal Pushers, RSM Community Table, Shea Therapeutic Riding Center, Smile Makers, South County Outreach, Standup for the Cure, Susan G. Komen of Orange County, Team Michelle, TOPSoccer, and YANA Cancer Center.

2024 TOP TEN WINE LIST-THE YEAR OF WINE

Taste of Wine & Food 2024 Top 10 List

Story by Rico Cassoni

This year has been remarkable for Taste of Wine & Food. Reflecting on the past decade, I can confidently say 2024 has been a banner year. Frank, who founded the column 19 years ago, agrees it's been one of the best yet. From wine festivals and elegant dinners to the premium "Beyond the Cellar" showcase at Torrey Pines and my solo trip to Napa Valley, we had plenty to savor. This Top 10 List highlights our favorite wines, starting with my selections including four reds and a standout Chardonnay and is followed by Frank's picks of four reds and a delicious Chardonnay.

Caymus Vineyards Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley 2022. $72.

The 2022 Caymus Cabernet Sauvignon celebrates 50 years of Chuck Wagner's iconic winemaking. Known for low crop yields, dry farming, and harvesting at peak ripeness, Caymus delivers bold, fruit-forward wines. The 2022 vintage is rich and jammy, offering full-bodied blackberry flavors with hints of vanilla and caramel. I paired this with a filet mignon, and it was a harmonious pairing. Cheers to 50 remarkable years, Chuck! Caymus.com.

Far Niente Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley 2022. $130.

Far Niente, an iconic Napa Valley winery with 140 years of history, is celebrated for its exceptional Chardonnay and Cabernet Sauvignon.

At the "Beyond the Cellar" event, I had the pleasure of tasting their 2022 Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon, which paired exquisitely with prime rib and venison lollipops. The nose offered mixed berries, floral notes, and baking spice, while the palate delivered lush berry flavors and a silky, spice-kissed finish. Farniente.com.

Harvey & Harriet Red Blend Paso Robles 2022. $28.

I revisited this red blend more than any other wine in 2024, often snagging it at Costco for $19.99. Harvey & Harriet is winemaker Eric Jensen's tribute to his parents to create an affordable everyday wine. It is a Bordeaux blend with Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Petit Verdot, and Malbec, as well as, some Rhône-style Syrah and Grenache, along with Petite Sirah for blending. Its blackberry, fig, and currant notes with hints of cocoa and a bright finish makes this a great value crowd pleaser. Harveyandharriet.com.

La Magia Brunello di Montalcino 2018. $99.

I enjoyed this DOCG Brunello at my monthly Italian Stallions luncheon at San Diego's The Godfather restaurant, where six of us gather to share food, wine, and lively conversation. Stallion Jeff Giglio brought the La Magia to our November meeting, and it paired beautifully with my Veal Parmigiani entree. The Sangiovese showcased bright cherry flavors with oak, tobacco, and vanilla undertones.

Three years of aging in 500-liter French oak barrels produced bright acidity and soft tannins. fattorialamagia.it.

The Prisoner Wine Company Chardonnay Napa Valley 2021. $40.

From the makers of Napa's most iconic red blend comes a standout white wine. Crafted by Chrissy Wittmann and her team, The Prisoner Chardonnay, is a medium-dry blend with splashes of Viognier and Gewürztraminer. Sourced from Carneros' San Pablo Bay fruit, it offers crisp flavors of baked apple and pear, complemented by subtle vanilla and pineapple notes on the nose. Malolactic fermentation adds creamy mouthfeel elegance. Theprisonerwinecompany.com.

Frank's Picks

Rico and I have discovered the very best wines for you to sip and savor. We hope you'll enjoy them as much as we did. Let's get to my 4 reds and one dreamy white leading off.

Amici Chardonnay Sonoma Coast 2021. $30.

In a rare wine moment, I have repeated my Amici pick from last year with the 2021 version. Amici's promise of "a wine created by friends, for friends" again is a passionate best of breed statement. The Amici owner is Bob Shepard with the great Anthony Biagi winemaker. Amicicellars.com.

Gelson's Cabernet Franc Rutherford Napa Valley 2022. $34.

This remarkable Cab Franc

undergoes traditional fermentation in stainless steel tanks under precise temperature control, followed by 18 months in new French barrels. The result is a richly hued full bodied wine, produced by the top rated Julien Fayard. Gelsons.com.

Molly Dooker Two Left Feet Red Blend South Australia 2021. $30.

Molly Dooker's Two Left Feet has just the right combination of 70% Shiraz, 15% Cabernet Sauvignon and 15% Merlot. To enjoy this wine serve at 60 degrees, "with a hop and a skip in your step." Mollydookerwines.com.

Poggi Amarone della Valpolicella Verona Italy 2017. $35.

This is a classic Italian government DOCG rated wine with the coveted "Appassimento" method of winemaking. It's your wine if you enjoy a big, bold red from the Veneto region of Italy. To give Amarone its depth and complexity, the grapes are dried and fermented for some 90 days to create intense fruit, balanced acidity and a slight sweetness. It is a compelling and unique wine. Cantinepoggi.it.

Rombauer Vineyards Zinfandel Napa Valley 2021. $38.

Considered to be the king of California Zinfandel, sourced from some of the state's oldest wine regions. All grapes are handpicked, sorted in the vineyard and again in the cellar using an optical sorter to ensure flawless fruit. Rombauer.com.

TROPICAL EXTRAVAGANZA RAISES OVER $100K FOR EASTERSEALS SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Photos by Vanessa Nealon-Roberts and Sabrina O'Brien

Easterseals of Southern California hosted a night to remember with its spectacular "An Evening for Autism," set against the backdrop of a lavish Newport Beach estate owned by Barry Saywitz of Saywitz Properties. The event brought a lively tropical theme to the autumn night, raising over $100,000 for autism awareness and services. It was an evening brimming with festivities, community spirit, and generosity that made a difference.

Over 400 attendees gathered under a large, heated, and beautifully lit big top set on the tennis court. Eight bars were strategically positioned throughout the space, ensuring guests were always within an expertly crafted cocktail or a glass of fine wine. Laderach Chocolatier Suisse offered sweet treats that paired perfectly with the featured beverages from Moraga Bel Air Vineyards, Warson Wines, Insolito Tequila, and Garrison Brothers Bourbon. The catering line-up was equally impressive, with Newport Rib Company, Gulliver's, Maggiano's Little Italy, and Eddie V's all serving delicious dishes that kept the crowd energized for a night of celebration.

The entertainment added a special touch to the evening. Three live bands provided the soundtrack, while fire dancers, hula dancers, circus jugglers, and stilt walkers dazzled guests and created an atmosphere reminiscent of a tropical paradise. The joyful, colorful performances kept the party mood at its peak and lent a festive flair that everyone enjoyed.

The evening celebrated the community and the strength and resilience of families affected by autism. Barry Saywitz, the gracious host of the event, expressed his satisfaction, saying, "I am so pleased with the results of the event. We had a huge turnout, bigger than expected, and a great response from the community and our sponsors. It was a tropical extravaganza that I think people will soon not forget, and all for a great cause. The proceeds will be well spent on much-needed services and technology development to benefit those who deal with autism."

Barry was joined by a host of notable attendees, including Nancy Weintraub, Chief Development Officer for Easterseals Southern California, and a number of key public figures. Scott Baugh, former California State Representative; Nick Dunlap, Mayor of Fullerton; Jane Heft, Councilwoman of Laguna Beach; and Noah Blom, Councilman of Newport Beach, all showed their support. Assembly Members Diane Dixon and Laurie Davis also lent their presence alongside Sue Ann Pien, the 2023 Spirit Award-nominated actress, and other community leaders, including Miss Fountain Valley and Miss Placentia.

With a mix of politicians, community leaders, and real estate heavyweights, the event became an extraordinary testament to what happens when a community comes together for a worthy cause. The evening underscored the power of collaboration, particularly when addressing issues that impact so many families in Southern California.

Silent and live auctions were another highlight of the night, helping to raise over $100,000, a significant boost from the originally anticipated $60,000. The funds raised will go towards Easterseals' ongoing efforts to expand their autism services, develop cutting-edge technology, and provide crucial support to those affected by autism and their families.

With major corporate sponsors such as Pacific Premier Bank, Siglers and Carrier Air Conditioning, and other contributors including National Energy Installers, Vision Roofing, Bank of California, Morgan Stanley Private Wealth Group, and The Saywitz Company, the level of corporate backing further demonstrated the strong community commitment to making a difference.

It was a night of celebration, empathy, and generosity that will undoubtedly leave a lasting impression on those who attended. The atmosphere was vibrant and filled with hope as everyone came together to support a cause that touched so many lives.

From fire dancing to gourmet food and heartfelt speeches, every moment of the evening was designed to bring joy and spread awareness, and it certainly succeeded in doing just that. Barry Saywitz and Easterseals Southern California set the standard for future fundraising events, showing they can make a meaningful impact when a community gets involved. Directory Advertising Hits the Jackpot for Small Business with a Limited Ad Budget $49.95

"I'm not a big business, but I know that you have to advertise someplace and these little ads don't cost too much so I figure if you expect to get any new customers, I gave the little 'directory' ads in the newspaper a try. Nothing happened for the first week, not even a phone call. Then Boom! comes three new customers. Paid for my little ads and a nice profit. I'd say I hit the jackpot. Sign me up for another week newspaper ladies!"

The above story may not be exciting but is typical of advertisers who are shopping for advertising that is affordable but gives them something back for their money. Here's another:

As a Woman Who Owns A Small Business These Newspaper Directory Ads are a Great Value

"We women have to work harder to make a small business grow. Thanks to small, affordable ads in this newspaper I've got ads running every week. Every call helps my business grow. I give you an A+ for good prices and steady results."

Looking for the Penny Saver in all the Wrong Places

"I Used to get pretty good results from the Penny Saver, but when the Penny Saver closed up, I found this newspaper's little directory ads are even cheaper and work just about as good. Usually get two or three calls a month and most of them wind up being my customers. My bookkeeper says your directory ads work pretty good for the money"

Newspaper Directory Ads Worked Just Fine, Cost Less than Half! Nice!

"We tried some slick magazine ads that had beautiful pictures on the cover and they worked real good for a while but they were costing us an arm and a leg so we tried these little directory ads in your newspaper. The ads are smaller, but cost way less than half of what we were paying the magazines and the newspaper directory ads seem to work about as well. We are glad we tried them. They are a pretty good deal for the low price."

New Business Owner Likes Lower Priced Ads

"I Just Started my New Business and Happy that I Can Afford Your Newspaper Directory Ads. I need to attract new customers and these ads are priced just right."
