MOMS IN TRAINING: 3 SANITY-SAVING TIPS FOR NEW MOTHERS

From feeding to diaper changing, new moms and dads are flooded with information to learn and decisions to make for their new bundles of joy. A recent survey conducted by Harris Interactive found that nearly 75 percent of moms plan to return to work post-maternity leave. What many new moms may not yet fully realize is that becoming a mother is a full time job in and of itself. Like any profession, new moms deserve training, breaks and lots of support!

Tammy Gold, parenting expert and author of the new book "Secrets of the Nanny Whisperer," shares some easy tips mothers can use to help ease the transition into their new parenting role:

Fill yourself up

"No mother can give 100 percent of herself, 100 percent of the time, to her children or her partner," Gold says. "Mom needs to remember what makes her who she is and what she needs emotionally and physically to live a complete life."

Filling yourself up can come from work, volunteering, taking classes, joining online groups, being in a book club, reading, hiking, walking or working out. Do whatever it takes to "fill you up" emotionally, mentally and physically - apart from your children and family. Remember: happy mommy equals a happy baby!

Crack the crying code

When your baby cries, it can frustrate you, prevent you from sleeping, or even make you feel like crying yourself. Figuring out why your newborn is crying can ease a lot of stress.

The main causes for infant crying typically include a dirty diaper, hunger, fatigue or being too hot. However, if these are not the issues, your baby could be suffering from gas, colic or reflux. Switching to the right baby formula or modifying your own diet if breastfeeding can fix all these issues.

If you're formula feeding, try switching your baby's formula to a "sensitive" or "gentle" type formula. These formulas have less lactose and can help to reduce gas and colic. Remember: the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) strictly regulates infant formula to keep all babies safe. So, Store Brand Formulas like Wal-Mart's Parent's Choice and Target's Up & Up are nutritionally equivalent to name brands like Enfamil and Similac. By switching to store brands, families can save up to 50 percent, or up to $600 dollars a year, which can certainly help with mom's stress level.

Don't compare

"You are the best mother to your children," Gold says. "It does not matter which moms work full time or which moms stay at home to run the 'perfect' home. Your children do not care what 'other moms' can manage or complete; they only care about you."

Believe in yourself and know that you are the best mother to your children. Be aware of the advice of others, but always trust your own gut, because you know what is best for your own children.

WAYS TO MAKE MOM'S DAY EXTRA SPECIAL

Don't let Mother's Day pass by as just another day on the calendar. Make this year's celebration a true ode to the moms in your life with some extra special touches at breakfast and beyond.

Give Her the Day Off

Whether she's the culinary expert of the home or cooking is usually a team effort, make sure her morning is one of rest and relaxation while you handle kitchen duties from prep to cleanup. These Bacon-Wrapped Egg Muffins are easily customizable to suit your family's favorite tastes with nearly endless possibilities. Just make sure to place a foil-lined cookie sheet under the muffin tin to make cleanup a breeze.

For a sweeter touch on brunch, these Cinnamon Muffins offer a one-ingredient solution that take just 15 minutes to prepare. Serve alongside the egg muffins or let these ooey-goey bites bake while mom enjoys the main course.

Add Flowers

Flowers are a timeless Mother's Day gift for a reason. They provide pops of color on dining room tables, kitchen counters, end tables or even nightstands. Consider mom's favorite spot in the house and place them within eyeshot for a frequent reminder of how much she's appreciated.

Create a Personalized Card

Add a special final touch to an already memorable morning with a thoughtful card and handwritten message. Get the kiddos involved and create a card from scratch with construction paper, colored pencils, markers and more for a homemade gift she'll cherish. If you didn't fall from the artistic tree, don't fret – a storebought card means all the same when paired with a heartfelt message that conveys your love.

Regardless of how you choose to celebrate, mom will appreciate the extra effort to make her day special. Find more family-friendly recipe ideas at Culinary.net.

Bacon-Wrapped Egg Muffins

Recipe courtesy of "Cookin' Savvy"

- 1 pound regular-sliced bacon (not thick-sliced)
 - 10 eggs
 - 1/2 cup shredded cheese
 - 1/3 cup half-and-half or milk
 - 1 tablespoon garlic pepper
 - 1/3 cup chopped fresh or frozen spinach
- Preheat oven to 400 F.

Using muffin tin, wrap bacon around inside of each muffin hole. In bowl, whisk eggs, cheese, half-and-half, garlic pepper and spinach. Pour into each hole, filling about halfway to avoid overflowing while cooking. Cook 40 minutes, or until eggs are golden.

Tips: Place muffin tin on cookie sheet lined with aluminum foil to catch grease and make cleanup easier. If you want bacon taste without lining muffin holes, mix fried bacon pieces into eggs.

Substitutions: Line each hole with hashbrowns then add egg mixture. Use broccoli instead of spinach, if desired.

Cinnamon Muffins

Recipe courtesy of "Cookin' Savvy"

- 2 tubes (8-count each) cinnamon rolls

Preheat oven to 400 F.

Grease muffin tin or line with liners. Using kitchen shears, cut each cinnamon roll into pieces and place in muffin holes.

Bake about 15 minutes, or until golden. Let cool then add provided icing.

Tip: To make icing extra special, add 2 tablespoons creamer and mix well before icing muffins.

THOUGHTFUL GIFT IDEAS FOR MOTHER'S DAY

To show your mom just how much she means to you, choose a Mother's Day gift that reflects her interests and passions. As you're looking for the perfect gift, consider these thoughtful ideas that will touch her heart.

Personalized Gifts

Show your mom how much she means to you by giving a gift uniquely tailored to her. Consider a personalized photo album filled with special memories or a custom-made piece of jewelry with her initials or birthstone. If your mom enjoys cooking, a personalized apron or cutting board with her name or a special message can be a winning gift. For the mom who loves to relax, a monogrammed robe or customized spa gift set allows her to pamper herself. You can also include a handwritten note or heartfelt letter expressing your love and appreciation.

DIY Gifts

Handmade gifts often hold special sentimental value and show you put thought and effort into creating something unique just for your mom. You could try making a homemade candle or bath bombs, a hand-painted picture frame or a personalized scrapbook filled with cherished memories. Alternatively, you could bake her favorite treats, prepare a special breakfast in bed or create a customized coupon book with vouchers for things like a homemade dinner or day of pampering. Get creative and have fun with your DIY gift – your mom is sure to appreciate the sentiment behind it.

Experience Gifts

Sometimes the best gifts are experiences rather than physical items. Plan a day trip to her favorite destination, book a spa day for her to relax and unwind or arrange a cooking class where she can learn new recipes. You could also surprise her with tickets to a concert, theater show or sporting event.

Practical Gifts

For busy moms who are always on the go, practical gifts can be lifesavers. Consider getting your mom a stylish yet functional tote bag or a backpack to carry all her essentials. You could also give her a smartwatch or fitness tracker to help her stay organized and track her health and fitness goals. A subscription to a meal delivery service or gifting kitchen gadgets or appliances that make meal preparation easier and more efficient are also useful ideas.

EMPOWERING OLDER ADULTS THROUGH NUTRITION: THE FIGHT AGAINST SENIOR HUNGER IN ORANGE COUNTY

By Holly Hagler, President and CEO, Meals on Wheels Orange County, and Claudia Bonilla Keller, CEO, Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County

Recent data show that 29% of seniors in Orange County are experiencing food insecurity, which means they do not have enough food, especially for a healthy and active life. This number is drastically rising, partially because older adults are the fastest-growing demographic, creating a "silver tsunami" of residents reaching the age of 65 and older. This surge is fueled by the swell of seniors projected to represent nearly a quarter of the county's population in just a few decades. Inflation and the jump in grocery store prices by 25% since 2020—with no sign of receding—are also contributing to this challenging scenario.

Amid this growing need, organizations like Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County and Meals on Wheels

Orange County play a crucial role in addressing senior hunger. Sharing a common goal to provide nutritious food to this vulnerable population, these nonprofits meet seniors where they are and ensure they are able to access the vital nutrition necessary for their health and vitality.

In collaboration with its partners, Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County provides dignified, equitable and consistent access to nutritious food, creating a foundation for community health. To address this need among older adults, Second Harvest has pioneered the Park-It Market program as a key component of its Senior Grocery Program. The Park-It Market program debuted in 2018 as a national first: A mobile walk-up market housed within a refrigerated trailer for seniors to select fresh produce, protein and dairy, free of charge and right from their doorstep at senior centers and senior apartment communities across the county. Second Harvest also recently released a "proof-of-concept" Park-It Market 2 trailer—lovingly dubbed "Granny's Market" in honor of the mother whose family foundation's generous contribution helped to launch the vehicle—double-sided and equipped with shelving that allows seniors to grab the food that they want.

Meals on Wheels Orange County is committed to erasing hunger and loneliness for at-risk seniors through nutritious meals, therapeutic care, social connections and other services that help them maintain their independence and quality of life. Meals on Wheels OC is advancing the vision, overall strategic initiatives and priorities, and is a deeply committed advocate of senior health in Orange County. Nutritious recipes are planned by a registered dietician and distributed through Meals on Wheels' Lunch Café programs and Adult Day Health Care centers or the Meals on Wheels' home-delivered program, thus meeting 100% of the daily nutritional value this vulnerable population needs.

Ensuring that low and fixed-income seniors receive food deliveries is just one aspect of senior nutrition. Equally crucial is the provision of nutritious foods essential for maintaining their health. It is important that seniors make every bite count and prioritize protein and fiber-rich foods like oatmeal, beans, nuts, fruits and vegetables. Appetite can also diminish with age, so it is important that seniors have three meals a day and drink lots of water to stay hydrated.

In Orange County, where one in four older adults grapples with food insecurity, the looming "silver tsunami" and surging grocery prices underscore the critical role of organizations like Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County and Meals on Wheels Orange County. To access support or aid a senior in need, individuals can visit feedoc.org/need-food or call 211 or the Orange County Office on Aging toll free at (800) 510-2020.

Financial support is indispensable to sustain these essential programs, ensuring no senior goes hungry or feels forgotten in our community. You can also give your time by volunteering for Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County or Meals on Wheels Orange County. Together, let's recognize Senior Hunger Awareness Month with a reaffirmed commitment to senior nutrition and well-being and to safeguarding the health and dignity of Orange County's cherished elders.

A MOTHER'S DAY PROCLAMATION WAS MADE IN 1870

By Mary Langenback

Every one of us has had or has a mother or step mother, at some point in our lives. Mothers day has been celebrated since the early 1900's. Although my own mother has passed away and I have no children of my own, I still remember her wonderful influence on my life.

In celebration of mother's day I wanted to learn about the history of mother's day and was surprised to find out that it was originally a woman's reaction to war. Julia Ward Howe, herself influenced by a one Anna Jarvis who sought to improve sanitation through "Mother's Work days" in the mid 1850's. So originally Mother's day was a day for Mothers to work to improve the lives of those around them. Julia Ward Howe, who lived through the Civil War, saw it as the only way to attempt to stop men from warring with each other. Call it what you will, but her idea was a day of peace. In 1870 she gave a proclamation (Read in full at: http://womenshistory.about.com/od/howejwriting/a/mothers_day.htm) for women to take counsel together after mourning their dead and to make an attempt to influence those around them, especially their family members, to do all they can to stop war and live at peace with their brothers and sisters around the globe. It was to be remembered that war has many other side effects than just the funerals during and afterward. There was an emotional effect upon women all over the world, crying for their dead, some who had depended upon those men for support, in societies that do not allow women to work. Some of these women with no men to depend on must get married to men they don't like, or go into prostitution for survival. The effect also was (and is) economic, men in the 1800's were the primary bread winners even here in America.

Mothers day was first celebrated in a small church, the church in Virginia where Anna Jarvis' daughter attended. Soon this holiday spread to most of the other 48 continental states. By 1920 it had been celebrated as a national holiday. Slowly, but surely we have stripped it of its original meaning, and have continued to war against ourselves (even our own family members and neighbors) and those of other countries. Even now we are at war in several places in the middle east. Our sons, and husbands, and fathers and lovers have gone off to war and this month we are going to sit at home with those who have stayed behind and celebrate the fact that we, or our relatives and friends, are mothers. Some husbands and families will cry (inside at least), because now there are some mothers at war.

We have come a long, long way and it is so very, very sad to say where we have ended up. We celebrate, adore, worship, and congratulate the mothers, the first time mothers, the oldest mother's, the youngest mothers and the mothers with the most children. This is not how Mother's day was supposed to be celebrated. As I said earlier, the original Mothers day was "celebrated" by mothers going out and caring about the health and sanitation of their communities.

So, this Mother's day when you are buying her gifts and taking her out to dinner, take a long, long look at her. Think of what the world would be without our mothers, without our mother's love and teaching. Think about what femininity meant to society in the past. It meant a caregiver in the family, a teacher, a spiritual leader, one who would (ideally) teach about peace and brotherhood. Then, talk together, after the younger kids have gone to bed, about how mothers, fathers and possibly what your family can do this next year to influence others to stop war. Lets get back to Julia Ward Howe's original plea: Disarm! Disarm! or even the 1960's motto: "Make love, not war"!

OAKLAWN, HOT SPRINGS: WHERE FORBES STARS ALIGN

Hot Springs, Arkansas, gets its name from the natural thermal water that flows from 47 ancient hot springs down into the heart of the city each day. The unique therapeutic qualities of the springs have attracted visitors to the city for more than a century to soak in the historic bathhouses.

Today, guests are finding more modern transformative treatments at Arkansas' first and only spa to achieve the coveted Four-Star rating in the Forbes Travel Guide - Astral Spa at Oaklawn, Hot Springs. Oaklawn also received a desirable "Recommended" rating for the 198-room Oaklawn Hotel.

Forbes Travel Guide is an independent global rating system for luxury hotels and spas. Inspectors, posing as regular guests, visit the facilities unannounced and test approximately 900 standards to determine the rankings.

Louis Cella, president of Oaklawn, says the Forbes rating is quite an achievement for the spa and hotel, which opened in 2021.

"Our hotel is one of the finest hotels anywhere. You would have to get on an airplane and fly outside of Arkansas to see another Forbes Four-Star rated spa," Cella said. "The standards that we must meet for such a rating are extremely high. However, we look forward to pushing the envelope and looking for opportunities to refine the guest experience even further in the future."

Astral Spa is an adults-only facility that provides visitors with a luxurious, customized experience. The spa offers all the traditional services that guests expect such as massages, facials, skincare and body treatments. What makes Astral Spa one of only 201 Forbes Four-Star rated spas in the world are the premium amenities including a state-of-the-art fitness center, dedicated men's and women's wet lounges and locker rooms equipped with heated loungers, needle showers, steam rooms, infrared saunas, whirlpool tubs, cold rooms and a dedicated co-ed parlor.

There is also a couple's suite with a soaking tub and exclusive couple-friendly amenities.

Oaklawn Hotel is located adjacent to one of the country's premiere Thoroughbred racetracks. Race fans from across the globe travel to Hot Springs to experience racing at its highest level, with the best horses, best jockeys, best trainers and best owners. The road to the Kentucky Derby begins at Oaklawn.

A stay at Oaklawn offers guests valet services, an escort to your room by our friendly bellmen, luxurious room amenities, superb room service and concierge assistance for your every need.

Taste of Wine & Food

By Frank Mangio & Rico Cassoni

REVISITING CARLSBAD VILLAGE'S FRESCO COCINA

Story and photos by Rico Cassoni.

We revisited Fresco Cocina in Carlsbad Village, where Executive Chef Travis McKinnon presents a modern take on Latin cuisine. According to McKinnon, "The creative menu fuses Peruvian tradition with Mexican flair," offering shareable plates and main courses for those who enjoy bold, bright flavors. McKinnon's goal is a higher level of cuisine that is more approachable. The restaurant's owner, Linda DiNitto, also owns sister restaurant, 264 Fresco, just a block away. McKinnon's culinary background includes working for and training with Chef Brian Malarkey's Restaurant. The menu, updated three times a year, recently transitioned to its spring/ summer offerings. McKinnon highlighted three new items: Brazilian Prime Skirt Steak, Whole Roasted Red Snapper Veracruz, and Mole Spiced Salmon. With such enticing options, patrons face the challenge of deciding what to try now and planning their next visit for what they missed.

One notable change since our last visit to Fresco is the arrival of their new General Manager, Mike Nybo, who also oversees their bar and wine program selecting wines from Argentina, Spain, Mexico, and California, maintaining their Latin influence. Nybo, originally from Vancouver, Canada, began his culinary journey at The Keg Steakhouse, progressing from dishwasher to bar back, bartender, and line cook. His experience also includes five years bartending at the Donnelly Group, as well as stints in bartending internationally in Turks and Caicos Islands and Australia, before spending a year in Brooklyn, NY. Nybo's extensive background in bartending allows him to create innovative cocktails like the Oaxaca Old Fashioned. I loved this Anejo Tequila, mezcal, and chocolate bitters creation.

McKinnon, Nybo, and Server Giana Stephenson guided our culinary journey, beginning with Cocina's addictive tortilla and doro chips, complemented by my Old Fashioned and Frank's glass of Albarino wine from Spain. Our starters included three short rib empanadas featuring soft, flaky dough filled with flavorful meat seasoned with Peruvian spices, garnished with pickled raisins, and plated with aji verde sauce. Alongside, we enjoyed delicate yellowtail tuna fish tacos with a crisp beer batter, served in corn tortillas and topped with citrus slaw, avocado salsa, and pineapple salsa—both were perfect for sharing and a meal in themselves.

For our main entrees, Frank could not resist the roasted Chilean Seabass entrée served with black rice, chayote squash, and roasted corn salsa. Like the yellowtail, the seabass was perfectly cooked resulting in a flaky, delicious Latin fish entrée. He also had a North Coast Laguana Baja Beer. Being a fajitas lover, the Peruvian Steak Fajitas was an easy choice for me, especially with Giana's affirmation. The Angus beef tenderloin strips were amazingly tender and had onions, peppers, and tomatoes immersed into the dish. The provided flour tortillas (corn also available) made a "create your own" wrap experience. The yuca fries and rice further enhanced this authentic Peruvian masterpiece. I shifted over to the Urbina Gran Reserva Rioja to pair with my fajitas. This would be hard not to choose for future visits to Cocina, but there are so many more amazing dishes including the three new dishes described above that Chef McKinnon added to the new spring/summer menu.

We wrapped up our Latin/Mexican culinary adventure with Dulce de Leche bread pudding. A thick slice of sweet bread was topped with a glaze and garnished with churro fries and strawberry coulis. Chef Travis, Mike, and Giana delivered a mouthwatering ethnic experience. If you're seeking authentic Latin cuisine with Mexican influences, Fresco Cocina is the spot for you. More details are available at frescococina.com.

SAVORING SUCCESS: TASTE OF ALISO NIGUEL RAISES FUNDS WITH FLAVOR AND FUN

In 2007, what started as a possibility blossomed into a reality for Aliso Niguel High School, all thanks to the vision and determination of a group of parents with a dream.

As a single mother raising two children, I understood the financial strain of after-school activities all too well. When my daughter expressed a desire to join the cheerleading squad, we faced the daunting challenge of funding it.

Working in community affairs for a large cable company, I witnessed the power of community organizations and nonprofits firsthand. Inspired by the success of the Taste for Los Al event, organized by Diana Hill and Larry Strawther, I saw an opportunity to replicate that success at our Aliso Niguel High School. With the support of these seasoned organizers, we were able to bring the concept to Aliso Niguel High School Booster clubs, forming the nonprofit "Parents for Aliso Niguel" (PFAN).

From its modest beginnings, our PFAN group, consisting of myself, Christy Fonseca, Mark Heflin, and Roberto Pellicchia, grew under Diana and Larry's guidance.

Now, the Taste of Aliso Niguel has blossomed into one of the high school's largest fundraisers, a testament to our collective dedication and commitment to supporting educational programs and initiatives. We couldn't be prouder! Parents can have a night out without their kids, hang with the other parents who are in their various booster groups, eat, drink, and dance while raising funds for their individual booster clubs.

This year's Taste of Aliso Niguel was held on April 20, 2024, and I always enjoy going back year after year to witness its success.

The event featured an impressive lineup of participating restaurants showcasing their signature dishes. From savory appetizers to decadent desserts, there was a tantalizing array of flavors to satisfy every palate. Among the standout participants, Lupes Mexican Eatery stole the show with its authentic Mexican cuisine, transporting taste buds straight to Mexico. Pavilions took generosity to a whole new level, serving a complete meal featuring mouthwatering marsala chicken, pasta, fresh veggies, and dessert—a true feast for the senses! But the culinary adventure didn't end there; I couldn't resist sampling the delectable offerings from Starfish Laguna Beach, indulging in Handel's Ice Cream, savoring the sweet creations from Cinderella Cakes, and treating myself to the irresistible cookies from Crumbl. And let's not forget the refreshing brews from Webbs Distillery that perfectly complemented the evening's festivities.

The turnout for the event was exceptional, with around 1000 attendees sampling dishes and mingling with fellow supporters. The vibrant atmosphere was further enhanced by the lively tunes of one of the top 80 bands, Reflexx, with their 80's new wave energetic performance, which kept guests dancing throughout the night.

In addition to the mouthwatering food and lively entertainment, the Taste of Aliso Niguel welcomed participation from several booster clubs at Aliso Niguel High School. These clubs seized the opportunity to raise funds by soliciting donations and keeping 100% of the proceeds. This year's silent auction area was particularly impressive, with the Football Boosters boasting 12 tables showcasing over 90 enticing items. As the lead getting all the items, Tanya Lopez said they raised over their goal of $9,000 for the team this year. She said, "My why is helping and volunteering, supporting my community, and being a mom, so this is my home, and I love it."

PFAN is on the brink of reaching the remarkable milestone of raising $1 million since its inception, thanks to the unwavering dedication of its volunteer team, generous sponsors, and steadfast support from the community.

Thanks to the generosity of attendees, sponsors, and volunteers, the Taste of Aliso Niguel was a culinary triumph and a resounding success in supporting education. With each bite and donation, the community came together to make a meaningful difference in the lives of Aliso Niguel High School students.

Thank you to everyone involved in keeping PFAN and the Taste of Aliso Niguel alive and strong all these years. Your support, whether as a volunteer, sponsor, or attendee, is truly appreciated. Together, we continue to raise funds for our school and empower booster clubs to work as a team to achieve their goals.

Directory Advertising Hits the Jackpot for Small Business with a Limited Ad Budget $49.95

"I'm not a big business, but I know that you have to advertise someplace and these little ads don't cost too much so I figure if you expect to get any new customers, I gave the little 'directory' ads in the newspaper a try. Nothing happened for the first week, not even a phone call. Then Boom! comes three new customers. Paid for my little ads and a nice profit. I'd say I hit the jackpot. Sign me up for another week newspaper ladies!"

The above story may not be exciting but is typical of advertisers who are shopping for advertising that is affordable but gives them something back for their money. Here's another:

As a Woman Who Owns A Small Business These Newspaper Directory Ads are a Great Value

"We women have to work harder to make a small business grow. Thanks to small, affordable ads in this newspaper I've got ads running every week. Every call helps my business grow. I give you an A+ for good prices and steady results."

Looking for the Penny Saver in all the Wrong Places

"I Used to get pretty good results from the Penny Saver, but when the Penny Saver closed up, I found this newspaper's little directory ads are even cheaper and work just about as good. Usually get two or three calls a month and most of them wind up being my customers. My bookkeeper says your directory ads work pretty good for the money"

Newspaper Directory Ads Worked Just Fine, Cost Less than Half! Nice!

"We tried some slick magazine ads that had beautiful pictures on the cover and they worked real good for a while but they were costing us an arm and a leg so we tried these little directory ads in your newspaper. The ads are smaller, but cost way less than half of what we were paying the magazines and the newspaper directory ads seem to work about as well. We are glad we tried them. They are a pretty good deal for the low price."

New Business Owner Likes Lower Priced Ads

"I Just Started my New Business and Happy that I Can Afford Your Newspaper Directory Ads. I need to attract new customers and these ads are priced just right."

Print your ad copy in the box at right.

RIDERS AREN'T ALWAYS IN THE RIGHT. BUT THEY ARE ALWAYS FRAGILE.

In addition to being vastly outnumbered by cars, bike riders are much more exposed. So, even when a rider does something boneheaded, remember—your broken headlight is easier to fix than their broken bones. Take the high road and give bicyclists the space they need to ride safely.
